

Conference 2023 Newsletter

We are excited to be able to bring our Neutropenia community together again in person this summer!

We are looking forward to providing an extraordinary experience for you and your families. Our goal is to help equip you with skills, knowledge and support you need to manage life with Neutropenia. You will participate in educational programs, make patient/family connections and benefit from private physician consultations if you desire, from some of the most experienced Neutropenia doctors in the country. These in-person retreats have proven to be invaluable, leaving a lasting impression on the lives of individuals with chronic Neutropenia and their families. We look forward to seeing you!
